Re: Joseph Birch v. E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Company, Inc.,
C.A. No. 05-799-JJF

Dear Judge Farnan:

I am contacting you once again to inform that Ms. Diluzio did not provide me the courtesy of moving forward with "Plaintiff Deposition."

Plaintiff Deposition was scheduled for October 24, 2007.

I faxed and mailed a letter to Ms. Diluzio and copied the District Court explaining that I had the responsibility of taking care of my two boys and could not make the scheduled time.

I re-scheduled for Monday October 29, 2007.

I did not receive any correspondence from Ms. Diluzio concerning this change, so I had re-written a letter explaining to her that Mondays were best for me due to my schedule, and re-scheduled for Monday October 05, 2007.

Ms. Diluzio replied explaining to me that she is going to petition the courts to dismiss my case.

I am again petitioning the courts to please consider my claim and thus allow me to move forward with "Plaintiff Deposition" and the remaining schedule outlined for this case.

I am consistently making progress towards my claim and would not want my case dismissed as that would deter my progression.

I have as well key witnesses that I feel would be beneficial and pertinent to the success in presenting my position concerning this case.

I appreciate your consideration concerning my claim and again apologize for any inconvenience experienced.

Thank you for your time and attention concerning this matter.

Joseph Will Birch
